DISPUTE RESOLUTION OUR LATIN AMERICA PRACTICE

Clear guidance through the issues and risks

EVERYTHING MATTERS

THE DIRECTION YOU NEED

Cross-border disputes are increasingly common, involving different cultures, legal systems and business concepts. They are often complex, time consuming and costly. Our approach is to reduce the uncertainties involved in these disputes through innovative dispute resolution strategies and effective case management.

Our leading global dispute resolution practice is one of the world's largest, with more than 1,400 lawyers across the globe. Our team are skilled in all methods of dispute resolution including litigation, international arbitration, mediation and expert determination. All of our lawyers are trained in alternative dispute resolution ("ADR") and will advise from the outset the most appropriate method of resolving a dispute.

LATIN AMERICA CAPABILITIES

Through our well-established Latin America practice, DLA Piper assists clients with sophisticated cross-border disputes and handles matters in virtually every country in the region. The key in all these matters is our ability to think strategically, act efficiently and deliver results for our clients.

We are committed to an organized approach to delivering seamless legal solutions and we have handled significant disputes arising in a broad range of sectors throughout Latin America.

We have recently increased our global reach by opening an office in Miami. An influx of capital and investments flowing through the city to countries in Latin America have created an ideal venue both for international arbitration and business deals relating to the region.

Strategic relationships with local counsel and political and business leaders enhance our understanding of the region and enable us to provide our clients practical and meaningful legal advice.

BRAZIL: CAMPOS MELLO ADVOGADOS

In 2010, DLA Piper established a cooperation agreement with Brazilian firm Campos Mello Advogados to serve clients in Brazil. The agreement enables Campos Mello Advogados and DLA Piper to collaborate closely to serve clients around the globe. With lawyers experienced in dispute resolution as well as corporate, finance, real estate, and tax matters, Campos Mello Advogados operates in both São Paulo and Rio de Janeiro.

VENEZUELA: DLA INTERJURIS ABOGADOS

In 2011, DLA Piper entered into an agreement with InterJuris Abogados S.C. to establish a presence in Caracas, where the firm operates as DLA InterJuris Abogados. InterJuris serves diverse clients based in the United States, Europe, Asia and Latin America that engage in business in Venezuela, matching and complementing our global platform. This alliance offers clients the full range of dispute resolution and transactional legal services.

MEXICO: MARGÁIN ABOGADOS S.C.

DLA Piper has established a consulting and services agreement with Margáin Abogados S.C. in Monterrey, Mexico. Monterrey is the center of Mexican industry and technology and the home of many of Mexico's most prominent multinational, national and mid-market companies. Our agreement enables clients to leverage both the local capabilities of Margáin Abogados and the global capabilities of DLA Piper in connection with international matters.

We also have long standing relationships with local law firms in many other countries across Latin America.

THE RIGHT TEAM

From our experience we know that chemistry and a good personal relationship are important factors when instructing external lawyers.

- Our international team has a full understanding of local requirements and a perspective that spans borders. Each jurisdiction presents distinct legal, regulatory, linguistic and cultural variations. We offer professionals with the right cultural skills and legal experience. Many members of our team are native Spanish or Portuguese speakers and were trained and/or educated in Latin America

- We place emphasis on partner involvement and take the time to build relationships so we can add value to your business
- You need outcomes that are aligned to your commercial objectives. We work to understand your needs in each and every case
- We understand the importance to our clients of maintaining confidentiality over their business activities and work in partnership with them to ensure that confidentiality is respected in their business disputes

CROSS-BORDER DISPUTE RESOLUTION EXPERIENCE

When disputes arise, it is important to get on top of the problem quickly.

- We regularly handle technically challenging and multi-jurisdictional matters and work extensively in emerging markets
- Our Latin America dispute resolution team includes local lawyers with the local strength and knowledge to advise on specific legal, cultural and procedural issues to support the needs of both local and international clients. Our lawyers outside of Latin America also have significant experience advising on disputes in the region

- Our international offices allow us to provide clients with a fully integrated team and consistent quality across all jurisdictions, whether dealing with litigation, commercial arbitration or treaty arbitration disputes
- We are instructed by some of the largest global institutions in relation to their most complex, high-profile and sensitive disputes
- Our “big case” experience means that we are well-placed to manage large and multi-disciplinary teams

INNOVATIVE SOLUTIONS

You want innovative solutions to your most complex problems.

- Our award winning team is skilled in litigation, arbitration and ADR and will advise from the outset on the most appropriate method of resolving a dispute
- We aim to solve complex business disputes as swiftly and effectively as possible and provide solutions which correspond to your business needs
- We use leading-edge technology to manage disputes efficiently and to deal with case management challenges including disclosure exercises
